Founded in 2008, NEXT DOOR GALLERY is located in a newly renovated Korean traditional house in the Gyeongbok Palace art district of Seoul. The space includes a main exhibition space and an outdoor window gallery, providing intimate milieus for viewing art. As the name suggests, NEXT DOOR GALLERY aspires to be a close neighbor to artists as well as a comfortable and reliable partner to collectors, critics and gallery goers. NEXT DOOR GALLERY seeks domestic and international artists that deliver unique and personal insights through their work, balancing the myriad tools of their craft to draw-in the viewer holistically. Ultimately, the aim of NEXT DOOR GALLERY is to set a commercial platform for promising artists and to cultivate a spirited artistic dialog around the issues, trends and personalities in contemporary visual arts. The gallery has held more than 30 exhibitions in the main gallery and guest-curated many more for other venues. NEXT DOOR GALLERY promotes its artists to a wider scope of collectors and viewers by participating in numerous art fairs including Doors Art Fair in Seoul and Art Daegu in Daegu, Korea and Art Fair Kyoto in Japan.
